Please indicate the volunteer duties that might interest you (check all that apply)

- ☐ Circulation desk (checking in/out library materials, shelving books, keeping the library tidy).
- ☐ Setting up and helping with quarterly book sales
- ☐ Being involved in our Storytime program
- ☐ Fundraising and other special events
- ☐ Helping out with our social media presence.

We ask that our volunteers work one three-hour shift per week, at a minimum. We also ask that a volunteer consider signing up for an occasional Saturday shift (also three hours). We also ask that volunteers try to attend the volunteer meetings when they occur. Volunteer meetings are only called when there are enough topics to discuss; they are infrequent and usually last less than an hour.

This information will only be used for volunteer-related purposes and only to the extent permitted by law. However, due to the nature of volunteering and interfacing with the public, we need to know this information. It does not necessarily preclude one from being able to volunteer.

I,_____, do hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Cottonwood Community Library from any or all claims or causes of action that may arise out of performance of regular assigned duties.

I understand that in my capacity as a Cottonwood Community Library volunteer I may encounter confidential information. I agree to protect this information, both during and after my service as a volunteer. I also agree to behave in a reasonable and ethical manner while performing my duties in the library.

I am aware there is no health insurance coverage by the Cottonwood Community Library. Injuries or sickness caused by my volunteer services must be covered by my private insurance. Cottonwood Community Library has commercial insurance for property and general liability that covers patrons. Volunteers are not employees, therefore Workman's Compensation Insurance is not available.

I understand and agree that submitting this application does not automatically register me as a Cottonwood Community Library volunteer, and that the decision to to take me on as a volunteer rests with the Director of Library Services and the Board of Directors.

By signing this form I attest that the information which I have provided is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
